George Frost, 69

George Frost, 69, of Duxbury, died at his home on Aug. 22 after battling cancer for several months. He was a retired employee of British Leyland Motor Cars, which later became Jaguar Cars, for nearly 30 years. He worked his way up through various positions in sales and marketing before becoming Vice President of product planning and marketing. Mr. Frost spent his retirement pursuing his lifelong hobby of collecting model cars. He was a member of the Boston Area Toy Collectors Club and was widely admired among his fellow collectors.

Mr. Frost was the son of the late Herbert and Marguerite Frost and the brother of the late Herbert Frost. He leaves his daughter Jane Navarro and his grandson Paul Navarro, both of Lovettsville, Va.; his sister, Juanita Scott of Doylestown, Penn.; and four nieces and nephews. A private memorial service was held on Sept. 11.
